

03 - THUNDER - Thunder

Oh, do you hear the thunder? It sounds far enough away
And oh sometime I wonder now, if the sound is bringing rain
And oh, do you see the people now?
well none of them are quite the same
And oh sometimes I wonder how
We be playing the same game, yea

Oh, do you feel the rain now? Fallin down into your skin
And oh sometimes I wonder now, if the sun will shine again
And oh, do you see the love in strangers?
Well all of us are quite the same
And oh sometime I wonder how Things could of ever ended up this way, yea
